The Blizzard of 2010

Plan for Recovery of Lost Instructional Time

The following plan will add instruction time without extending the school year or interrupting plans that you may have for Easter vacation.

Instruction Date	Hours Lost	Make-up Date	Hours Gained
December 21	6 hours	March 10	3 hours
December 22	3 hours	March 12	6 hours
February 1	2 hours	April 14	3 hours
February 3	6 hours	April 28	3 hours
February 8	6 hours	May 12	3 hours
February 9	6 hours	June 2	3 hours
February 10	6 hours
February 11	6 hours
February 16	6 hours
February 17	2 hours
February 18	2 hours
February 19	2 hours
Total Time Lost	-53 hours	Total Make-up Time	+21 hours

Summary of Instructional Time
Time Scheduled	1032 hours
Time Lost	-53 hours
Current Scheduled Hours	979 hours
ADW Minimum	979 hours
Make-up Hours	+21 hours
New Total Hours	1000 hours

Holy Redeemer School is able to recover hours from lost instruction time due to the blizzard. We originally scheduled 1032 hours of instructional time when our academic calendar was created.

The ADW minimal requirement is 979 hours. Therefore, if we use the March 12th staff development day and turn 5 half-day Wednesdays (3/10, 4/14, 4/28, 5/12, & 6/2) into full days, this will allow us 21 hours of added instruction. This works out to 1,000 hours or 102% of the ADW mandated number of instructional hours (979).
