

Quench your thirst this summer

TAKE A SUMMER CLASS AT THE UNION

WASHINGTON THEOLOGICAL UNION is a
Roman Catholic School of Theology and Ministry.
Course offerings for the Summer 2010 semester are as follows:

Distinguished Scholar Lecture

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Dr. Wendy M. Wright, Ph.D.

Creighton University

Professor of Theology

John C. Kenefick Faculty Chair, Humanities

Thursday, July 15 @ 7:30 PM

O'Toole Library, Washington Theological Union

Dr. Wright specializes in history & spirituality, family spirituality, women & spirituality, and spiritual direction. With a focus in the Salesian spiritual tradition, her published works include: Francis de Sales: Introduction to the Devout Life and Treatise on the Love of God; Sacred Dwelling: a Spirituality of Family Life Spirit at Home, and her most recent book, The Essential Spirituality Handbook (2009).

Ecumenism: Spiritual Growth & the Moral Horizon (3)

May 24 - June 11

Dr. John Crossin, OSFS

Executive Director, Washington Theological Consortium

Critical Study of the New Testament (3)

July 19 - August 6 | 7:00 - 9:40 PM

Dr. Joseph Mindling, OFM Cap.

Chair, Scripture Faculty, Washington Theological Union

Theology of the Church (3)

July 19 - August 6 | 7:00 - 9:40 PM

Dr. Vincent Cushing, OFM

President Emeritus, Washington Theological Union

Christian Spirituality Through the Ages (3)

July 19 - August 6 | 7:00 - 9:40 PM

Michael Dante

Ph.D. candidate, Catholic University of America

Franciscans at the Crossroads;

Struggle for the Soul of the Order - 1274 to 1328 (3)

June 28 - August 6 - ENTIRELY ONLINE

Dr. David Burr

Professor Emeritus - History, Virginia Tech University

Washington Theological Union

www.wtu.edu | admissions@wtu.edu

800-334-9922 x.5210

6896 Laurel St., NW | Washington, DC