

BEREAVEMENT PLANNING GUIDE FOR THE FAMILY OF THE DECEASED

FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON

There is an appointed time for everything and a time for every affair under the heavens.

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to keep, and a time to cast away.

Ecclesiastes 3, 1-2, 4

BEREAVEMENT MINISTER

Holy Redeemer Church and the Bereavement Ministry donate their services in loving memory of your loved one.

INTRODUCTION

In the past, you have loved others, comforted them, shared their losses. During the hours ahead, it will be your turn, your time to be loved, to be comforted, to let others share your grief.

The Catholic funeral liturgy provides courage and comfort for those mourning the death of one they loved. However, the more family, relatives and friends actively plan and participate in the ceremony itself, the deeper will be the consolation and strength they experience.

The time spent selecting readings and music will help you discover how the treasury of faith can address the questions which tear at your heart. Your effort will provide a direction in which to look for comfort throughout the season of grief. And your planning will invite the people who gather with you to pray for your needs. Thus, the funeral itself will be truly prayer for you.

LITURGY PLANNING

Holy Redeemer invites the family to use the church for the wake, and welcomes the opportunity to help with the wake service if that is your choice.

There are numerous funeral liturgy alternatives. The most commonly practiced is the Rite of Christian Burial.

In addition to readings and music, we encourage family and friends to participate in the liturgy as readers, gift bearers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, altar servers, cross bearers and Ministers of Hospitality. There is a planning sheet at the back of this booklet to assist you.

READINGS

As you prepare the liturgy, we offer the following list of selected readings:

OLD TESTAMENT READINGS

Job 19:1, 23-27a (789:1). The suffering Job speaks his conviction that he will see God face-to-face.

Wisdom 3:1-9 (789:2, long form). The future glory of the dead who have placed their trust in God.

Wisdom 3:1-6, 9 (789:2, short form). Those who have trusted in God will abide with him after death.

Wisdom 4:7-14 (789:3). Even a short life can achieve perfection in God's eyes.

Isaiah 25: 6a, 7-9 (789:4). God will destroy death and comfort his people.

Lamentations 3:17-26 (789:5). The depths of sorrow and the compassion of God.

Daniel 12:1-3 (789:6). The resurrection of the dead.

II Maccabees 12:43-46 (789:7). We pray for the dead because they will live again.
